Dear Mr. Conley:

Thank you for agreeing to help us achieve in the South the goal of the American Civil Liberties Union -- to keep democracy's guarantees intact.

We have received quite a few requests from cooperating attorneys for names of other cooperating attorneys in other cities and states. We are in the process now of writing each of our cooperating attorneys asking them if they would object to having their name appear on a list which would be distributed only to other ACLU cooperating attorneys.

We are using this same opportunity to get further information from our cooperating attorneys and, therefore, ask if you would be kind enough to check the appropriate spaces below and return this letter to us.

Thank you again for being willing to join in our effort to protect the civil liberties guaranteed by our Constitution.

Sincerely,

Jean Levine

I do not object to having my name appear on this list and I do want to receive a copy of it.
