Business Women Meet

Montgomery had the honor of entaining during the weekend Alabama Federation of Business and Professional Women's club. I learned from Mrs. Car-k Andrews some of the hisory of this fine and useful organization. The National Federation was formed in Missouri 1919. It is non-sectarian and non-partisan. The Alabama Federation was organized and federated in the beginning and now has 923 members with Mrs.
Johna Gains of Montgomery as president.

The main purpose of the organization is to elevate the standards of women in business and professions, to promote the interests of the women, to bring out a spirit of cooperation among business and professional women in the United States; to afford opportunities to business and professional women through education along industrial, scientific lines.

Negro Lawyer's Appeal Up Today

The appeal of Arthur A. Madlson, New York negro lawyer recently convicted and disbarred on charges of illegal practice, is scheduled to be heard today in Montgomery Circuit Court.

Madison was convicted in the Court of Common Pleas April 14 and fined $500 in each of five cases charging him with representing negroes in voting law cases without having been retained by the purported clients.

Conviction under the statute carries automatic disbarment, and Madison has been under bond since the trials, pending appeal.
He will be represented at tomorrow's phase of the case by

Arthur Shores, Birmingham negro lawyer.

The cases grew out of appeals by Madison from action of the county board of registrars in denying the petitions of five negroes for voting privileges. At his original trial the negro attorney testified he was employed by a group of 16 persons to handle their registration, and that the five were "members of the group."

The May term of Circuit Court will open today at 10 a.m., with Judge Eugene Carter presiding.

Trial of cases will probably be completed by Thursday, Clerk John R. Matthews said, yesterday.

Three capital cases on the docket are set for hearing on Thursday. Majority of the defendants charged with violating internal revenue laws are expected to plead guilty and ask for probation, court officials indicated.

There are about 63,000,000 insurance policy holders in the United States.

Rationed Motorists Now Get Extra Gasoline Mileage

All over the country, thousands of rationed car owners, truck fleets, taxi cabs, motorcycles and tractor owners report gasoline savings up to 30%. These people have been enjoying extra gasoline mileage by installing a Vacu-matic to their carburetor. This new device is entirely automatic. Nothing to regulate or adjust and can be installed in 10 minutes. The Vacu-matic Co., 7617 983-F State St., Wauwatosa (13), Wisconsin, are offering a Vacu-matic free to anybody who will install it on their car and help introduce it to others.
