

The Montgomery-Tuskegee Times

VOLUME 21 NO. 21

KEEPING THE BLACK COMMUNITY INFORMED OF ISSUES AFFECTING ITS SURVIVAL

APRIL 23-30, 1998

Trenholm State Technical College Archives Receives Additional Special Collections...By: Dr. Gwen Patton

ATTORNEY ARTHUR
MADISON (1940)

Courtesy of Mrs. Josephine Madison
Burton, TSTC Archives

The total number of Special
Collections is 13 with the acquisition of Attorney Arthur Madison and Mr. & Mrs. Richard and Bertha Carter's papers, photographs and small artifacts.

Attorney Madison (1888-1957) filed the first voting rights test case on behalf of Black Montgerians in 1943. For this effort he was disbarred in Alabama. He returned to New York City, where he practiced law and served as special advisor to Father Divine's Ministries.

"Attorney Madisons was a member of the prominent Eli Madison Family who bought the May's Plantation in 1880. This community changed its name to Madison Park, which still thrives in Montgomery to this day," said Dr. Gwen Patton, Trenholm State Technical College Archivist. "Madison Family offsprings (specially Daughter Josephine; his nieces Dr. Hagalyn Seay Wilson, Aunt Priscilla and Mrs. Emma Bell; and his nephews Dr. John Winston and William Winston) have been wonderful in gathering his papers and

In Back seat are State President Richard Carter and his wife Bertha, daughter Ruler. Dr. Moses Jones, driving. Courtesy of Carter family, TSTC Archives

small artifacts for the archives."

The 13th collection is that of very active community members, the late Mr. & Mrs. Richard and Bertha Carter (1913-1998). The Carters owned a family business on what was Dorsey Street. Mr. Carter (d. 1977) was State President of the Elks and Mrs. Carter served as Montgomery Daughter Ruler & President of Loveless Elementary School PTA. She was a radio personality in the 1950s for WRMA-AM. Her show was called "It's a Woman's World." She was in great demand as keynote speaker for religious, civic and community events. "The archives was elated to gain legal custody of the Carter papers.

There are literally over 800 photos, covering the Elks, Old Ship AMEZ Church and Community activities from the 1940s world." Patton said. "Mrs. Carter was known for her chic hats, matching gloves and accessories. She kept these items in tip-tip shape." Patton is writing a chronicle on Attorney Madison, entitled, "Attorney Arthur Madison: His Family, His Community, His Politics."

The Montgomery-Tuskegee Times

VOLUME 21 NO. 21

KEEPING THE BLACK COMMUNITY INFORMED OF ISSUES AFFECTING ITS SURVIVAL

APRIL 23-30, 1998

Trenholm State Technical College Archives Receives Additional Special Collections...By: Dr. Gwen Patton

ATTORNEY ARTHUR
MADISON (1940)

*Courtesy of Mrs. Josephine Madison
Burton, TSTC Archives*

The total number of Special
Collections is 13 with the acquisition of Attorney Arthur Madison and Mr. & Mrs. Richard and Bertha Carter's papers, photographs and small artifacts.

Attorney Madison (1888-1957) filed the first voting rights test case on behalf of Black Montgomarians in 1943. For this effort he was disbarred in Alabama. He returned to New York City, where he practiced law and served as special advisor to Father Divine's Ministries.

"Attorney Madison was a member of the prominent Eli Madison Family who bought the May's Plantation in 1880. This community changed its name to Madison Park, which still thrives in Montgomery to this day," said Dr. Gwen Patton, Trenholm State Technical College Archivist. "Madison Family offsprings (especially Daughter Josephine; his nieces Dr. Hagalyn Seay Wilson, Aunt Priscilla and Mrs. Emma Bell; and his nephews Dr. John Winston and William Winston) have been wonderful in gathering his papers and

In Back seat are State President Richard Carter and his wife Bertha, daughter Ruler. Dr. Moses Jones, driving. Courtesy of Carter family, TSTC Archives

small artifacts for the archives."

The 13th collection is that of very active community members, the late Mr. & Mrs. Richard and Bertha Carter (1913-1998). The Carters owned a family / ness on what was Dorsey

Street. Mr. Carter (d. 1977) was State President of the Elks, and Mrs. Carter served as Montgomery Daughter Ruler & President of Loveless Elementary School PTA. She was a radio personality in the 1950s for WRMA-AM. Her show was called "It's a Woman's World." She was in great demand as keynote speaker for religious, civic and community events.

"The archives was elated to gain legal custody of the Carter papers.

There are literally over 800 photos, covering the Elks, Old Ship AMEZ Church and Community activities from the 1940s world." Patton said. "Mrs. Carter was known for her chic hats, matching gloves and accessories. She kept these items in tip-tip shape."

Patton is writing a chronicle on Attorney Madison, entitled, "Attorney Arthur Madison: His Family, His Community, His Politics."