MRS. J. K. ROBERTSON, a prominent Ensley club woman attended the 46th Annual State Meet of the Federation of colored Women's Clubs at Talladega, June 8th and 9th.

GREENSBORO, N. C. — June 15 — (PPNS) — One of the newest additions to the chaplain's staff at the Army Air Forces Technical Training Command here is Chaplain (First Lieutenant) Lamar A. Stroud, Social Circle, Georgia, who arrived here recently from Jefferson Barracks, Mo.

Chaplain Stroud was commissioned in the Chaplain Corps in May, 1943, and previous to that time he was a minister and principal of the high school in Social Circle, Ga., for three years, and for 13 years head of a school in Madison, Ga. He is a graduate of Turner Theological Seminary, Allen University, Columbia, South Carolina, and attended Garrett Biblical Institute.

Huntsville Leaders
Organize Negro
Cab Company

Its an ill wind that blows no one good. There has been much neglect and abuse heaped upon Negroes throughout the South in matters of public transportation.

In some communities jim-crow laws forbid service to them by well established cab company, bus concerns give them the bad end of the bargain both in service and waiting room facilities, the latter usually consisting of commode for women and men and some small filthy back-alley waiting room too dirty and badly fur-

ATTY. A. A. MADISON, prominent Montgomery and New York lawyer who is leading the drive to register Negro voters in Alabama.

Atty. Madison Visits
Birmingham

Atty. A. A. Madison of Montgomery spent Wednesday and Thursday in Birmingham. While there he addressed the Alabama Medical Association in session at Slossfield and the Baptist Women's Convention in their session at Fairfield. He also visited other groups of interest.
