

Lanier Graduating 34 Today, Capitol Heights Junior 21

Mid-term graduation exercises will be held today at Lanier High School and at junior high schools with appropriate programs, according to announcements made in principals' offices yesterday.

At Lanier 34 boys and girls will assemble in caps and gowns to receive their diplomas at 3 p. m. in the school's auditorium. The famous Lanier band and the Lanier glee club will give variety to the program and Dr. C. M. Dannelly, county superintendent of education, will hand out the diplomas. Prof. J. S. McCants, veteran principal of Lanier, who will retire tomorrow, will be unable to attend the graduation exercises.

At the Capitol Heights Junior High School the mid-term graduation program will take place at 9:15 a. m. with T. C. Carlton, the principal, officiating. The following program has been arranged:

Scripture Bill Rosser; prayer, Christine Brooks; president's address, Andrew Lee Paige; who's who, Joan Francis; vocal solo, Mary Kathryn Baker; gifts to class, Lillian Burge; class song, "Don't Envy Us," words by Madge Hollingsworth, accompanied by Margaret Graham and Mary Nell Howell; class will, Bobby Mock; remarks and diplomas by T. C. Carlton.

Students who will receive diplomas at Capitol Heights are: Christine Brooks, Lillian Burge,

Registrars Upheld In Madison Case

For the second time this week Arthur A. Madison, a negro lawyer who became involved in litigation last Spring, through his efforts to force registration of a group of negroes, yesterday figured in Alabama high court decisions.

The Alabama Supreme Court yesterday handed down a decision affirming judgment of Montgomery circuit court in dismissing appeal of General P. Madison, for whom Madison, the lawyer, was counsel, from action of the Montgomery County Board of Registrars in declining to register him.

In his appeal Madison contended that he had been refused registration because of his race. The Supreme Court did not go into this, ruling merely that his application had been properly de-
