Decatur, Alabama

Dear Mrs. Bryant:

The Alabama Democratic Conference is preparing now to play its part in the 1968 election and Democratic National Convention. The extent of our influence in these matters will rest on the cohesiveness of our organization and the ability and determination of our leaders, local, district and state. The county and district organizations must have representation in these momentous affairs for us to achieve success.

Please send by return mail the names and addresses of our representatives from your county or district organizations. We would like to inform them of our next meeting.

If you are not so organized in your county, please send the names and addresses of your political leaders. We would like to correspond and communicate with them.

Sincerely,

RE: Special Youth Session with the Honorable R. Sargent Shriver

The Alabama Democratic Conference will hold its annual meeting on Saturday and Sunday, April 28 and 29, at the Jefferson Davis Hotel located at 348 Montgomery Street, Montgomery, Alabama.

The Honorable R. Sargent Shriver, former Peace Corp Director and 1972 Democratic Vice Presidential Nominee will be guest speaker during the banquet which will be held Saturday night, April 28 at 7 p.m.

The youth will be given special priority to hear Mr. Shriver on Sunday morning, April 29 at 9 a.m. I am sure you will not want to miss this special treat. You are young, but not too young to be politically involved.

In addition, the youth will have panel discussions, rap sessions - you name it! A thing of our own. Everthing you'll want to know about or share with your brothers or sisters, you've come to the right place. So come on out to help make this Your Thing and share Ideas and Talents with us. You'll be glad that you took the time to attend the meeting. Registration fee $1.00
