Subject: Photographs of the RAL Occasion

Dear Gwen, Today I received the wonderful letter and the beautiful photographs taken by your photographer from the School. They were simply beautiful. The photographer is excellent at his/her work and should be commended for the excellent work. The shots were candid and timely and depict an exemplary talent.

I want to thank you again for making that event possible through persistence, perseverance and tenacity. I salute you, for you are much stronger than I am stubborn. And even though I struggled against you, you were insistent as well you should. My daddy deserved every thing that was said and every thing that he got. From the bottom of my heart, I THANK YOU, DR. GWEN PATTON for everything. Karen thanks you, Kevin thanks you, Kenny thanks you, Kim thanks you Karrie thanks you, Cameron thanks you and I thank you. Eleanor Dawkins

Dr. Gwendolyn Patton

Montgomery, AL 36105

Dear Gwen:

Thank you for sending me the color photo of the handsome guy who spoke at the unveiling of the historical marker at the home of Rufus Lewis last week. As I told you on the telephone, it was a memorable ceremony. I am humbled just to have been asked to be a part of it.

Let's do lunch one day soon. Also, one day soon, after the ADC Semi-Annual Convention on October 19-20, 2001, I want to spend a couple of days at the Trenholm Library, going through the Rufus Lewis papers.

Sincerely,

Jerome A. Gray

Dear Dr. Gainous:

I will never be able to find the appropriate words to express my sincere appreciation and gratitude for being a key part of the College Archive's program: "Unveiling of Historic Marker in Honor of Rufus A. Lewis."

Your remarks on the life and work of "Coach Lewis" broaden the perspective for those of us who worked with Coach and reside in Montgomery. Coach Lewis' influence went beyond Montgomery and Alabama, and it was your remarks that brought this fact home to us. Too often we take for granted our local s/heroes, and by doing so we limit their contributions. Your remarks will always serve as a reminder for me as an archivist to not ever minimize the contributions of our most courageous pioneers in our ongoing quest for first-class citizenship.

Enclosed are photographs for your collection.

With kind regards, I am

Respectfully yours,

Gwendolyn M. Patton,
Archivist

Dear Dr. Gainous:

Thank you for your encouraging words. I am one of those who believes that high morale in the academy is an important factor that leads to effective performance and excellence.

Enclosed, please find shelf lists of our Institutional/Trenholm State Technical College archival holdings, the Rufus A. Lewis Collection and barcode inventory of our total holdings in the repository.

The archives has hosted several programs, which have been lauded by the College Community and the community at large. We have had over 600 patrons, from the campus, locally, nationally and internationally, to access the archives.

We look forward to your participation at our upcoming event: The Unveiling of the Historic Marker at the home of the late Honorable Rufus A. Lewis, Thursday, September 20, 2001, 11:30 AM, 801 Bolivar Street (near High Street and off of Jackson Street.)

With kind regards, I am
