Dear Rufus,

I received a call yesterday from Mrs. Rheutelia Oliver concerning her talk with you while in Montgomery.

Rheutelia ask about you and Eleanor each time we are together. I am aware it concerned her to no small degree to know that we are not keeping in touch. Nevertheless I often think of you and Eleanor and promise myself to call when ever I am in your city.

I have long hoped that when you are in my city

you will also feel free to call or come by as you once did. Our welcome^{mat} is still out and we love you and Eleanor as much as ever.

Eleanor would send me a Christmas greeting
& note while over-seas.
This ended about three or four year ago. Now
I learn she is back
in the United States.
Please send me her
address.

As I watched the Democratic convention I was almost certain I saw you one night.
Did you attend?

Are you still single?
I am sure you are still
a big political figure.

Maybe you heard of the

passing of mother and
my sister who lived
in New York.

The family is well.
Langdon sends best
regards.

I pray that Rheutela's concern is a means of reviving our friendship
and keeping in touch.

Sincerely yours,
(With love)

Annie S. Kimberly
