OUTSTANDING PERSONALITIES AT THE CONFERENCE

WILLIAM B. POND

Executive Officer — National Recreation & Park Association

Mr. Pond has served as Executive Officer of the National Recreation and Park Association since March 18, 1968. Prior to assuming his present post, he was Director of Parks and Recreation for Sacramento, California.

He has also held administrative positions in the park and recreation field in Beaverton, Oregon; Washington State Parks and Recreation Commission; Renton, Washington and Cheney, Washington.

This is his first visit to our state and the Alabama Recreation and Parks Society extends a cordial welcome to him. His official host during the conference will be Jimmy Brown, Decatur.

JOHN TIDWELL

Superintendent, Parks and Recreation, Tupelo, Mississippi

Mr. Tidwell is a past president of the Mississippi Recreation and Parks Association and has served on the Advisory Committee of the Southern District, National Advisory Committee on Recreation Administration and Board of Trustees of the National Recreation Association. He is a native Alabamian and we are happy to have him back in our midst. His official host during the conference will be Lynn Bozeman, Montgomery.

RICHARD L. COTTRELL

*Chief of Planning, Land Between the Lakes
Golden Pond, Kentucky*

Mr. Cottrell is a native of Terre Haute, Indiana, and a graduate of Purdue University. He has served fifteen years with the USDA-Forest Service, including assignments in Oregon, Tennessee and Georgia. He was transferred to TVA in August, 1970, as a recreation planner at Land Between the Lakes, and assumed his present position a year later. He has appeared on numerous programs of the NRPA but this is his first meeting with the Alabama Society. His official host for the conference will be Don Stanford, Decatur.

DR. HAROLD D. MEYER

*Recreation Consultant, Professor Emeritus
University of North Carolina
Chapel Hill, North Carolina*

Dr. Meyer is a nationally known lecturer, educator, author, speaker and philosopher. He is the former Director of the North Carolina Recreation Commission, Past President of the American Recreation Society, and for many years served as Chairman of the Recreation Curriculum at the University of North Carolina. He is an old friend to the Alabama Recreation and Parks Society, and we are delighted to have him on our program again this year. His official host for the conference will be Gene Cornett, Gardendale.

JAMES R. CHAMPLIN

Chairman, Department of Parks & Recreation Administration, University of Georgia

Mr. Champlin is the newly elected president of the Georgia Recreation and Parks Society. He is also Vice-chairman, Georgia State Board of Recreation Examiners and a member of the Georgia State Commission on Aging. He is an Associate Professor and Chairman, Department of Recreation and Parks Administration, University of Georgia. He is the author of numerous publications and is listed in the 1970 edition of "Personalities of the South." His official host during the conference will be Tommy Ford, Auburn.

ROGER K. BROWN

*Director, Southeastern Region Service Center
Atlanta, Georgia*

Roger Brown is now serving as Director of the Southeastern Service Center of NRPA. He was formerly Director of Recreation for Calhoun and Dalton Georgia; Aiken, South Carolina and Durham, North Carolina. He has served as a speaker and panelist at State, District and National Conferences and has had numerous articles published. He recently prepared an article for the monthly publication of the Alabama League of Municipalities, which will appear in the near future. His official host for the conference is Henry Andrews, Montgomery.
