

My Past Energy

My immediate family has not been a problem to me for quite sometime. I have a step-son that has a son, who is now twenty years old. The mother and father separated in 1981; the father was stationed in Germany. I met the mother-in-law 1987; I sense very rapidly that this person was mostly the cause of my son and her daughter being separated. I talked to my son's wife quite frequent during my husband's illness; I soon determined just what kind of she was, but I never mentioned my thoughts to my son.

In 1989 the wife had my son thinking the child was graduating from high school; he came from Germany under that impression. After he got to Virginia one day before graduation, is when he found out the boy would not be graduating. We went to the school and got the child's grades, and with the kind of grades that we saw at that time it was no way he could have finished high school.

His daddy started to inquiring about schools where he could enroll him in a school where he could make up the subjects that he needed to finish. The grandson entered into a private school that cost two hundred dollars a month for two days a week, and he would finish in June 1990.

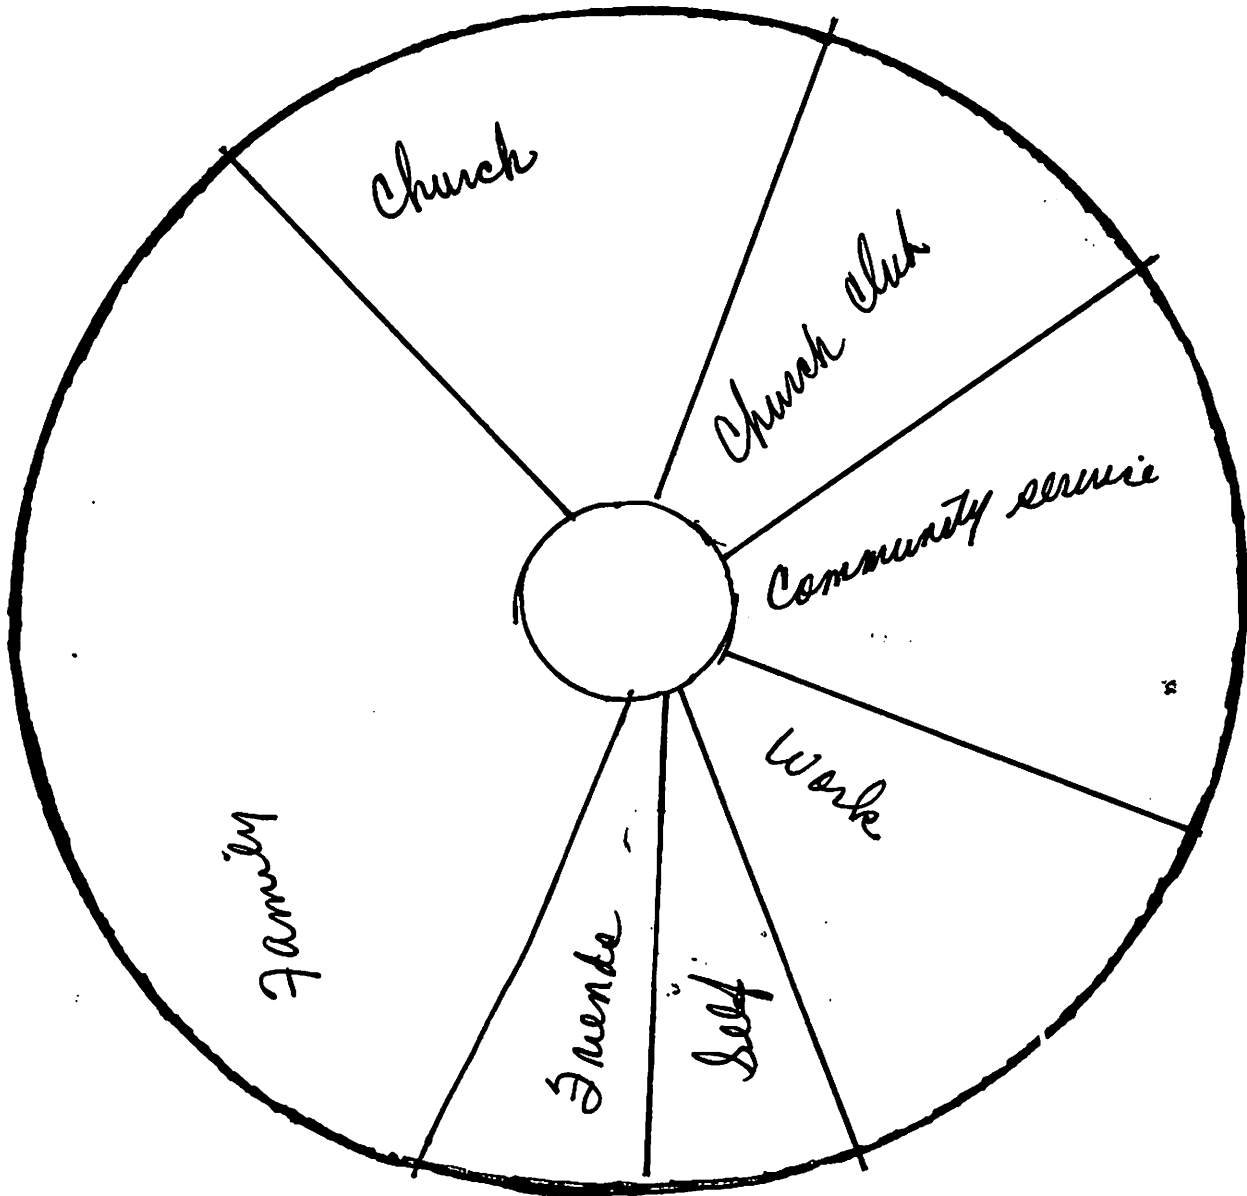

In November 1989 the child mother, sister and a cousin was killed on their way to Florida to help their mother move into a home she had purchased. My son back again from Germany to be with his son. After the funeral he got his orders change from going back to Germany, and was stationed in Virginia. This was done so he could be with his son.

I am a regular church goer and a member of a church club. (Radio & Charity) I work with the elderly that are shut-in, any programs that I know of or hear about I get what ever benefits I can for them.

I visited the sick members of my church and others that I know about. I also work with youth groups, and these are parents of Headstart Children. These young adults need all of the guidance that can be given to them.

GOD BLESS YOU! SERVICE IS LOVE
IN ACTION.

Present Energy

I am still dealing with my son and grandson. I attended my grandson graduation in June of this year. A dreadful thing happen in Oct. of this year. My son came home from work one Friday afternoon; his son had moved just about all the furniture, along with all cooking utensils, and accuse his father of spending $30,000.00. This is lies and later the phone was disconnected due to a $800.00 phone bill. This has gotten next to his father and me. Since my son has gotten his phone service back & course with my help I get constant call the behavior of the grandson.

I am the oldest of my cousins. I was reared by their parents, so I am consider as being their oldest sister. I did promised their mother when she was dying that I would see after her children. This I have tried to do. It was six children. The youngest son visited the family Thanksgiving. After returning home on a Friday the next night his wife call the police dept. and he was carried to a mental hospital. This Ordeal has upset the entire family. Our family found out that the wife is trying to make him lose his licence to practice pharmacy. Although a family member is there with him every visiting hour.

Those of us here call daily and talk to them most time I call twice a day to let him know we love him. I would like to go there but I thought it was best I did not because I know I would go to jail after I got through doing what I had to do. The Good Lord is good. And I thank him.

I am still working with my church during the shut-in and visiting the sick. I am also taking food share money for disabled people so that they can get their food. I am still a church goer and work with charity club fund raising drive, the money is for the church social service department.

Also, in your meditation + prayer time, visualize him ~~in~~ ⁱⁿ your mind's eye, and say to him "THE CHRIST IN ME BLESSES THE CHRIST IN YOU, AND THE HEALING, RESTORING LOVE OF GOD IS FLOWING IN AND THROUGH YOUR MIND RIGHT NOW AND ALL IS WELL" THANK YOU FATHER!

YOU NEED TO PRAY IN THIS WAY FOR YOUR LOVE ONES. BEHOLD AND BLESS THE CHRIST IN THEM AND RELEASE THEM INTO THE KEEPING OF THE SPIRIT WITH THEM. IN OTHER WORDS TAKE EVERYTHING TO GODS IN PRAYER AND LEAVE IT THERE.

Active Energy

See and feel yourself in this reality. Imagine yourself doing, having and being this person. Let this become your faith (the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen)
